The Fillmore Auditorium

This historic venue has been a staple of Denver's music scene for decades. The Fillmore has hosted various acts, from rock and roll legends to up-and-coming indie bands. The intimate setting and excellent acoustics make it the perfect place to catch a live performance.

The Ogden Theatre

Another iconic venue in Denver, the Ogden Theatre has been hosting concerts and shows since 1917. The theatre has a capacity of 1,600 and features an impressive sound system, making it the perfect place to see your favorite bands and comedians.

The Bluebird Theater

The Bluebird Theater is one of Denver's most intimate venues, with a capacity of just over 300 people. This small theater is known for hosting a variety of indie and alternative acts, as well as comedy shows.

The Comedy Works

If you're looking for a good laugh, the Comedy Works is the place to go. This comedy club has been a staple of comedy shows in Denver for over 30 years and has hosted some of the biggest names in comedy, including Louis C.K., Kevin Hart, and Dave Chappelle.

Paramount Theatre

There was a theatre in the 1930s, and now it's being utilized for live performances. The palace is now recognized as a place of historical significance. The venue's retro decor and atmosphere make it ideal for anyone looking to peek at Denver's rich past while enjoying cutting-edge musical acts or hilarious stand-ups.

The Denver Botanic Gardens

The Denver Botanic Gardens is a unique venue offering concerts and comedy shows during summer. The gardens feature beautiful gardens, an impressive collection of plants and flowers, and various concerts and comedy shows in Denver.

Center for the Performing Arts

The Denver Center for the Performing Arts is a complex of multiple venues that host various performances, including concerts, comedy shows, and theater productions. The complex includes the Ellie Caulkins Opera House and the Boettcher Concert Hall.

Mission Ballroom

This is more than just another concert venue; it's also an opportunity to check out the work of talented local creatives. Several paintings by regional painters may be seen within the structure. While watching a live performance, you may also enjoy a meal and drinks here.

Levitt Pavilion

The fact that a group of volunteers manages it for no pay is the place's greatest strength. The venue's mission is to provide enjoyable musical opportunities for everyone. Each year, the theatre maintains its tradition of presenting fifty performances at no cost to the public. Besides these performances, the facility hosts a number of others each year.

Fado Irish Pub

There is live music and entertainment at Fadó in addition to the usual menu and drinks in Irish pubs. As the sun goes down, the venue frequently fills up with people enjoying the traditional dark wood bar and lots of "pub" atmosphere.
